Jensen protested the game because Hester's fine was not collected. No reason was given for raising Hester's suspension except that it was for the good of the game. Peace reigned throughout the game.

Buck Weaver found Bernhardt for a double and a triple today and Potts robbed him of two singles.

MONEY GREED TO RUIN BASEBALL

Chicago, June 18.—Money greed on the part of players bids fair to be the curse of baseball, according to B. B. Johnson, president of the American league. Johnson left for New York today to take part in a meeting of the national commission which it is said measures will be taken to prevent the Federal league's threatened raid on major players.

After declaring that organized base ball will prevent by injunction any major league player from appearing in a Federal uniform, Johnson said: "However, if there are, as President Gilmore of the Federals says, forty major players who are ready to jump to the Federals, I say let them jump so we may know who they are, and rid the sport of men who are in the game for purely mercenary reasons. "It is an awful thing for a player to boast that he is in the game merely for what he can get out of it. He is serving notice on the public that he is a mere hireling and will do anything for money. Once let the public get imbued with the idea that baseball players are ready to jump contracts or do anything else if there is enough money in it and they will no longer believe that games are hon-
